SIMON JONES ANNOUNCES NOVEMBER 2022 RELEASE OF THREE NEW SONGS

25 November 2022 (ADELAIDE S.A.) – Simon Jones’ highly-anticipated first original music EP will be released worldwide on December 22, as announced by Jones himself this evening during a live YouTube web chat with his fans.

The EP contains three songs entitled Not That Strong, The Busker and Bruised, and will be released on Spot_the_dog streaming platform. Jones spent the past four months writing new material, and collaborated with several artists, he had always wanted to work with.

“For the last three years, I’ve been working on a number of songs but decided these three most recent tracks, would be the first to be released,” Jones says.

“Not That Strong is a song about a relationship breakup which arose suddenly and unexpectedly and the affected partner laments lost opportunities to repair the rift” The Busker is heart rendering song about an old busker with long grey hair who shuffles into town hauling a battered old guitar on a trolley. He is ignored until he starts to play with unbelievable ability” Jones said. “The third song Bruised pays homage to the 70s rock bands with its distorted guitar riffs and Hammond organ style sonic blasts” Jones added.

Jones will be performing these and other songs along with his band at venues around Adelaide in coming months.

Jones has been playing guitar in bands since he was 16 years old and has accompanied Award Winning artists such as: Talia Wittmann (Toyota Star Maker 2008), world renowned, jazz, pop and gospel vocalist, Charmaine Jones and TV personality - Bachelorette and SAS contestant, Ali Oetjen. Not to mention, talented local singer-songwriters, Jaymi Humphreys and Aden Quinn.
